Guideline for Appointment of Thesis Committee and External Examiner for Graduate Students

Master's Program

The thesis committee must consist of at least 3 members as follows:

- Principal advisor: The principal advisor must be an SIIT faculty member in a corresponding or related academic program.
- Co-advisor (if any): A co-advisor must be an SIIT or TU faculty member, or an expert outside TU, with a doctoral degree or equivalent, or with an academic rank of at least associate professor in a corresponding or related academic program.
- Expert outside TU: The expert outside TU must hold a doctoral degree or equivalent with an academic rank of at least assistant professor, or have an academic rank of associate professor or higher.
- Other thesis committee members: Other thesis committee members must be SIIT or TU faculty members with a doctoral degree or equivalent, or with an academic rank of associate professor or higher.

The number of thesis committee members who are not the principal advisor or a co-advisor must not be fewer than the number of those who are the principal advisor or a co-advisor.

The number of thesis committee members who are SIIT or TU faculty members must not be fewer than the number of those who are experts outside TU.

The above thesis committee must also serve as the committees for both the proposal and final thesis defenses. However, the chairpersons of both defenses must not be the principal advisor or a co-advisor.

Doctoral Program

The thesis committee must consist of at least 5 members as follows:

- Principal advisor: The principal advisor must be an SIIT faculty member in a corresponding or related academic program.
- Co-advisor (if any): A co-advisor must be an SIIT or TU faculty member, or an expert outside TU, with a doctoral degree or equivalent, or with an academic rank of at least associate professor in a corresponding or related academic program.
- Expert outside TU: The expert outside TU must hold a doctoral degree or equivalent, or have an academic rank of associate professor or higher.
- Other thesis committee members: Other thesis committee members must be SIIT or TU faculty members with a doctoral degree or equivalent, or with an academic rank of associate professor or higher.

The number of thesis committee members who are not the principal advisor or a co-advisor must not be fewer than the number of those who are the principal advisor or a co-advisor.

The number of thesis committee members who are SIIT or TU faculty members must not be fewer than the number of those who are experts outside TU.

The above thesis committee must also serve as the committees for both the proposal and final thesis defenses. However, the chairpersons of both defenses must not be SIIT or TU faculty members.

External Examiner

The SIIT Academic Review and Rank Assessment Committee (ARRAC) shall appoint an expert outside TU with a doctoral degree and an academic rank of professor, who is not a member of the thesis committee, to serve as the external examiner.
